in pre partition days urdu has been the vehicle of learned expressions in social sciences and humanities but in the post partition era it was not in much use by the scholars partly because the young generation of scholars was not so familiar with urdu the present work is a meticulous effort to unfold the vast learned material on modern india for research scholars had this effort not been made a large segment of valuable material it would have remained untapped by them primary sources like articles in urdu newspapers and journals have been scanned the entries give names of authors and titles in transliterated form but annotation is given in english in each entry the book contains author title and subject indices this book is the translation of the urdu memoir gard e raah which was first published as a serialized autobiography in the urdu journal afkar to enthusiastic response the book has been deemed as one of the finest urdu memoirs to date fascinating vignettes of raipuri s close association with some of the luminaries of indian politics and the world of letters such as jawaharlal nehru maulvi abdul haq and munshi premchand has enhanced the interest of the book his knowledge of history and his extensive reading in many other subjects as well as his varied experiences give the book its wonderfully mature and sophisticated flavour
